

A Secret Society operation: saving GR, Part I: 29 September to 9 October, 2015

Background: ANG's gang sent GR to assault the alleged suspect in late January, telling him that police would end up arresting the alleged suspect and not him. Instead, GR was arrested and charged with assault with deadly weapons. Pre-trial process began in September. The alleged suspect had been subpoenaed to court. He supplied the DA with the recording of the assault.

It should be remembered that the following Secret Society operation – saving GR – took place while all the women in the gang were still pursuing their stalking claim against the alleged suspect with the TMU. While the gang temporarily put aside their case at the TMU to work on GR's case, the TMU continued to run its investigation of their activities using informants inside the Secret Society's organization.

29 September (Tuesday)

It seems that GR didn't want to be convicted of assault with deadly weapon, even though it was only a misdemeanor. He discussed the matter with ANG's gang. The strategy decided on: to accuse his victim (the alleged suspect) of criminal conducts (especially in regard to the latter's own pending vandalism case) so that he can make his assault on him justified, as part of some "neighborhood watch program". But ANG's gang did not want to reveal the fact that it was they who had sent GR to ambush the alleged suspect, for they didn't want it to come to light that they had been tracking him and going after him all this time – that they had a Facebook Group devoted to him on which they shared videos of his vandalism. GR cannot reveal the fact that he had known ANG's gang since a long time ago and that it was ANG's gang who had fed him with all sorts of horror stories about the alleged suspect portraying him (falsely) as a monstrous criminal stealing and breaking into people's home and peeping into people privacy, etc.

The strategy they had decided upon, for the sake of saving GR without revealing his connection with the gang, seemed to be this: to get GR to lie that he found the alleged suspect committing crimes that night so that he was assaulting him as part of some "neighborhood watch program". GR would also pretend to find the alleged suspect's blog and discover incriminating evidences on it, and then bring the evidences to court to convince the jury that, indeed, the night when GR assaulted the alleged suspect, the latter was committing crimes. In this way, GR would never have to reveal his connection to ANG's gang. Everybody would believe that GR was acting on his own when he tried to defend his neighborhood.

And so ANG's gang decided that they needed to find the alleged suspect's old blog, for they remembered that, on that old blog, there were some mysterious codes which the alleged suspect wrote to designate the vandalism he was required to perform and which the gang had had success in interpreting. Thus, on 5:53 PM, they sent in their scout looking for the alleged suspect's blog: 68.28.115.116, Sprint PCS, Ridley Park, Pennsylvania (south of Philadelphia). The Secret Society had not found the alleged suspect's old blog, but only discovered a new blog, and, on it, the first post on PD (4 and 5 May) – four day after the posting. They didn't know why the old blog was gone.

The problem is thus that the alleged suspect's old blog was no longer there, and that, in its place, there was this new blog.

30 September (Wednesday)

GR had his court hearing this morning. The DA (H) turned the recording of the incident over to the defense. GR, still unawares, decided on the original plan and requested that his case go to trial. He was still planning on accusing his victim instead.

Soon, however, GR, after listening to the recording, became concerned that his assault on the alleged suspect was all recorded. Not only was the alleged suspect's blog not found, but this recording demonstrated that the alleged suspect was not engaged in any criminal conducts that night and that the "crimes" which GR was instructed to (falsely) accuse the alleged suspect of committing that night (breaking into people's home, etc.) had nothing to do with his pending vandalism case and whatever criminal conducts could be made out of the mysterious coding on his old blog. But, if he could find the blog, it's better than nothing.

GR was angry. With the recording of the incident he would be convicted, unless he revealed the truth – i.e. that he had seen videos of the alleged suspect committing vandalism crimes on the Secret Facebook Group and that he was instructed by the whole gang to assault the "criminal". But ANG and everybody else in the Secret Society adamantly objected to his revealing the truth: what these women did was "secret", never to be revealed to outsiders, for they were a "Secret Society". The whole gang must be discussing this difficulty the whole afternoon, and they sent their Palmdale scout to take a look again. Their Palmdale scout, you recall, was here scouting on 11 and 12 September. First, on 3:02 PM, 172.112.170.179, social.res.rr.com, Palmdale, CA.

172.112.170.179 - - [30/Sep/2015:16:02:00 -0600] "GET /blogs/2014/04/14/last-word-on-my-past-two-month-targeting-and-gang-stalking/ HTTP/1.1" 404 1360 "http://forum.-----planet.com/index.php?topic=-----" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_10_5) AppleWebKit/600.8.9 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/8.0.8 Safari/600.8.9"

Since this blog post had nothing to do with any talk about criminal conducts which the gang was looking for, the gang's plan must be something like this: to use this opportunity to also expose the fact that the alleged suspect was, in addition, the author of the many postings on PP's forum. This could only be because SDW had also requested that she be included in the Secret Society's current plan to use GR's case to launch an assault against the alleged suspect. But, again, disappointment, because the needed blog post was no longer there. Then, on 8:23 PM, the alleged suspect posted on his blog, "PD, 6 and 7 May".

After almost 6 hours of deliberating, on 8:57 PM, the gang, or the Secret Society, sent in the Palmdale scout again, first looking for the same blog post, then, the front page, and then the new blog.

The problem was getting worse. Not finding anything from the old blog, the Palmdale scout instead discovered a new post on PD. This was most disappointing.

2 October (Friday)

On 5:51 AM, the Secret Society sent in another scout using proxy trying out more links on the PP Forum postings in order to establish a connection between the user there who had bad-mouthed about SDW and the alleged suspect's website. Only one document was there, however.

3 October (Saturday)

On 6:30 PM, the Secret Society sent another scout to reach for the alleged suspect's blog post from the PP Forum, hoping again to establish a connection between the user there and the alleged suspect's website. However, the posing was again not found: 173.34.66.41, cable.rogers.com, Scarborough, Ontario.

4 October (Sunday)

After some discussion in the morning, on 11:55 AM, the Secret Society sent in the Palmdale scout again:

172.112.170.179 - - [04/Oct/2015:12:55:23 -0600] "GET /timeline9/timeline9d.pdf HTTP/1.1" 404 1360 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10_10_5) AppleWebKit/601.1.56 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/9.0 Safari/601.1.56"

This chapter was also linked from the same PP posting. It was, unfortunately, also not there anymore. If it could be found, then there would still be a chance for SDW to also make a case using GR's case. But no.

5 October (Monday)

This morning, there was the alleged suspect's preliminary hearing for his vandalism case. It seems that the gang (ANG in particular) was hoping to be able to testify, because they had another plan: to use the testimonies in the preliminary hearing to both save GR in the other case and to get SDW involved as well. However, things again didn't go as planned. The alleged suspect waived the preliminary hearing, so that no testimonies had surfaced at all.

In the afternoon, ANG's gang (ANG, the German Lady, Kiersten, and SDW) must be discussing with GR about how to save him. On 6:27 PM, somebody from Glendale (64.125.69.170, above.net) came to look at the alleged suspect's new blog. 6:47 PM, he came again: blogs/?cat=1 (the whole blog), blogs/?m=201510 (only October), and blogs/?p=57 ("Suspicious visits, September 30").

64.125.69.170 - - [05/Oct/2015:19:27:44 -0600] "GET /blogs/ HTTP/1.1" 301 375 "http://r.search.yahoo.com/_ylt=AwrTccmMIxNWAScAJUEnnllQ;_ylu=X3oDMTByMXM3OWtoBGNvbG8DZ3ExBHBvcwM4BHZ0aWQDBHNlYwNzcg--/RV=2/RE=1444123660/RO=10/RU=http%3a%2f%2fwww.lawrencechin2011.com%2fblogs%2f/RK=0/RS=LkkrA7o7.DK8A0M8Xj68QWcHKRk-" "Mozilla/5.0 (Macintosh; Intel Mac OS X 10.7; rv:41.0) Gecko/20100101 Firefox/41.0"

This seems to be GR himself. No blog, and no testimonies during this morning's preliminary hearing. It seems that he was doomed unless ANG's gang should come out of darkness to help him. On his own, he could only pretend to find this new blog which could not help his argument at all.

6 October (Tuesday)

Late afternoon, the gang tried again. From 4:57 PM onward, visits came from the same residence from which a visit had once come on 9 May, 12:31 PM. It was PD's home. It's another associate of ANG's gang. It's not the same computer, not PD's computer, however. Either this is a different person who had come to PD's home or PD had two computers at her home.

In any case, the Topanga person (the helper who came to PD's home) visited in the following way, using a proxy: 4:57 PM, 5 PM, 5:05 PM, 43.249.37.100, Google HK, Google webcache, Leaseweb Asia Pacific, Hong Kong, "How I have 69" (The trip to Hong Kong), 2014/4/20, 2014/4/21/, 2014/5/2, 2015/4/30/sounds-of-glass, MAC OS 10.9.

Meanwhile, PD was communicating with the whole gang from her Pilate studio. On 5:22 PM, she came to look at the new blog also:

On 5:40 PM, the Topanga person (or helper) came to look at the new blog from webcache: 71.189.193.23, Isanca.fios.verizon.net, Topanga, California. This time his/her real IP address was exposed:

A Secret Society operation: saving GR Lawrence Chin

This Topanga person (or helper) used Google HK and proxy to avoid detection. S/he was certainly Chinese and can read Chinese. His/ her real purpose was to look at the Google webcache of one particular old post of the alleged suspect's containing the wanted mysterious codes – since the post had long ago disappeared from the alleged suspect's site. This is the blog post which the gang had wished would still be there so that their plan could work. We can be sure that both Karin and GR were sitting next to the Topanga person directing the operation. The Topanga person or helper first looked at the chapter "Trip to Hong Kong" (How I have/ 69) only as decoy, trying to divert the alleged suspect's attention. After much discussion, 5:40 PM, the Topanga person (or helper) looked at the Google cache for the same blog post again. Still from Google HK. This time s/he forgot to use proxy.

Evidently, the gang was thinking that, although they could no longer find the original blog post, they could still use the Google's cache of it. They must have supplied GR with the Google cache for him to present it to his defense attorney tomorrow.

Since the TMU had recruited PD as an informant inside the Secret Society's organization, we can be sure that a surveillance camera was installed on the ceiling of PD's home and captured the whole gang's operation. The TMU had obtained more evidences that this group of women was all pathological liars – saying any lies to manipulate the criminal justice system to attain their objective – which they would use to dismiss their stalking claim and discount Homeland Security's warning about the alleged suspect as a terrorist. PD herself was probably surprised to witness that these women, ANG in particular, were not innocent victims at all but were willing to concoct any stories to attain their objective.

7 October (Wednesday)

A Secret Society operation: saving GR
Lawrence Chin

It seems that GR's defense attorney had rejected Google webcache of the bad blog post as inadequate evidence for launching a defense on ground of "neighborhood watch". The bad content had to be found on the website itself. GR, and the rest of the gang, must be very disappointed.

8 October (Thursday)

It seems that, today, ANG, disappointed, came to the alleged suspect's website herself to see if it's ever possible to find the bad post that was needed. Perhaps GR had expressed his dissatisfaction: "You sent me to assault him telling me he's going to get arrested. And now I'm about to get convicted of assault. I need to tell the truth!" ANG panicked – she didn't want GR to reveal her secrets – and came to the alleged suspect's website in search of a solution. On 12:48 PM, it's ANG from House Z: 173.196.200.74, Google: (1) blogs; (2) front page; (3) vol1append.pdf; (4) Letter to Burgenthal; (5) Gallery; (6) "How I have, 3: Cassie". It seems that ANG was so distraught that she was staying home today and didn't go to work.

The search term ANG had used was probably "lawrencechin2011.com". ANG's gang must have been discussing the matter throughout the day. Finally, they had decided on the same old tactic: asking their computer guy the HK Hacker to use HTTrack to index the whole website so that the entire gang and all their helpers could browse through the site's content offline, without tipping off the alleged suspect. On 12:46 AM, 9 October, the HK Hacker was set to work. (It was 3:46 PM in Hong Kong.)

174.21.130.31, HTTrack indexing from gangstalkingwiki.com: blogs, archivedblogs, vol1appendcont, story_docu, old_recordings, 2008_09 to 2008_12_audio, 2008docs, pleading_papers, 2008visitros, 06_09, nica_vids, thirdrunoutline, timeline9, timelinepartVI, timelinepartV, timelinepartVI, vol-6. The HK hacker was using a Seattle IP address. He didn't index the chapters from "Karin's meetups" because the whole gang had already indexed these chapters on 27 September, less than two weeks ago.

9 October (Thursday)

The whole gang must be euphoric: after searching through the content of the alleged suspect's website, they had discovered that the bad old blog post was still archived somewhere on his current website. The gang could now send GR to the alleged suspect's website to fetch it. On 6:01 PM, somebody came to check the alleged suspect's blog, perhaps to make sure that he hadn't documented their latest op: 166.137.246.46, /blogs, direct visit, mycircular.net, iPhone Fresno, CA. This IP address is blacklisted.

15 minutes later, he came again to look at the front page:

166.137.246.46 - - [09/Oct/2015:19:15:14 -0600] "GET / HTTP/1.1" 200 11022 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (iPhone; CPU iPhone OS 6_1_2 like Mac OS X) AppleWebKit/536.26 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/6.0 Mobile/10B146 Safari/8536.25"

In fact, this could very well be GR on his phone using a proxy. The Secret Society must be explaining to him where he might find the bad blog post he had wanted on the alleged suspect's website. Perhaps he wasn't home, and had to rush home first. In any case, on 6:51 PM, GR came, using his own computer. This time he was using a proxy: 205.185.198.225, Mudhook Marketing,

A Secret Society operation: saving GR

Winter Park, FL. Somebody in the gang had already used this proxy before, on 7:03 AM and 7:20 AM, 6 October, and referred GR to it in order to help him evade the alleged suspect's detection. First, GR looked at the front page. 4 minutes later, 6:55 PM, archivedblogs; 6:56 PM, 02-14; 3714.pdf (containing a post about SDW); 6:59 PM, 05-15; 5-15.pdf (this one contains the single bad post in question, the one post which he had needed); 7:01 PM, sci.pdf; 7:07 PM, soft.pdf; 7:18 PM, "Investigation of a schizophrenic, I"; 7:37 PM, old_recordings; 7:53 PM, recording of talk with Cindy, 2_9_08.

Although he was on the website for an hour, he had accomplished his job within the first 10 minutes. He had looked at the rest probably only in order to generate decoys. The post about SDW was of course inconsequential, but SDW must have also requested that GR put her in the game as well ("join the club"). Then, another hour later, the gang sent in another scout, using a proxy in Croatia: 8:53 PM, 85.10.55.176: front page, direct visit. 8:54 PM, Google SI, blogs, gallery. 8:55 PM, Google SI, blogs again (?m=201509: same as blogs). 8:56 PM, attachment2/dailymotion_3_15_08.wmv. 8:59 PM, attachment18, attachment8, attachment 3, Petition/X and E. 9 PM, Karin's email, 5/22/08. 9:01 PM, dailymotion_problem_3_16_08.wmv.

Amazingly, it looks almost like this was the same Topanga person (or her helper), the Chinese girl. The visits she had done were however inconsequential, since, other than the blogs, there weren't anything wrong with the files she had looked at.

Then, after another hour, the gang sent in the last person to deliver the last blow. 10:04 PM, 162.193.217.140, lightspeed.irvnca.sbcglobal.net, Rosemead, CA: Google: suppl_pld_8bg42c11v.pdf. In this old, defunct version (not linked from the front page but dumped away in folders and yet not deleted) ANG's name remains unchanged. (Her name had already been changed in the updated version of the chapter that was linked from the front page.) The search term was probably "ANGB LAWRC".

Obviously, in the plan for counter-offense which the gang was preparing for GR, ANG herself was to be involved. GR's plan of defense was to thoroughly demonize his victim into some sort of bad criminal, so that his assault on him could be justified as "neighborhood watch program". The Secret Society's plan for him was for him to bring in the entire gang to testify on his behalf in regard to his victim's bad character. He only had to explain how he could have known that his victim was a bad criminal and find ways to bring the gang to the courtroom – both without exposing the fact that he had known them since a long time ago already and that it is these women who had sent him to assault his victim. GR's public defender had subpoenaed ANG already by looking into the victim's history, but GR had to find another mechanism to explain how he could know the rest of the gang members and to enable him to bring them in. The gang had thus instructed GR to pretend to find all the gang members, like the German Lady and SDW, by identifying them on the alleged suspect's website, and then to contact them – all the while nobody would find out that it's all staged, that GR had known ANG's gang members since a long time ago and was in fact sent by them to assault the alleged suspect, and that it was the gang members themselves who had instructed GR to pretend to find them in this way. Both SDW and the German Lady could then also have an opportunity to make a big splash about the alleged suspect's website, resulting perhaps in a court order to suppress it.

Pretty smart: to turn defense into an opportunity for an offense. Now GR was due for trial on 13 October.

A Secret Society operation: saving GR, Part II: 10 to 14 October, 2015

10 October (Saturday)

On 1:14 PM, the alleged suspect posted on his blog, "ANG's most recent...".

Now that GR had obtained the support for his argument – that he found out that his victim was a "criminal" by reading his blog – and his public defender had subpoenaed ANG from the alleged suspect's other case, there remained the task of bringing in the rest of the gang members to the court room to testify against the alleged suspect without letting the alleged suspect, or outsiders, know that GR had already been connected to the Secret Society since a long time ago. They could bring in the German Lady (for she was all over the alleged suspect's website), but they had difficulty creating excuses to bring in SDW – who desperately wanted to participate in the staged show – because they weren't able to find connections between the PP Forum postings and any writings on the alleged suspect's website. They probably had problem of creating excuses to bring in Kiersten as well. In the afternoon, the Secret society sent in their scout to try again. The person was certainly related to GR. 2:49 PM, 45.49.14.79, social.res.rr.com, Los Angeles. The person would be Googling for materials on the alleged suspect's website until almost 3:30 PM. He was looking for more incriminating materials to buttress GR's argument that he found out his victim was a "criminal" by reading his website, and was probably hoping to find some writings on which SDW could be identified, but most of the materials were already gone.

The Secret Society must be rehearsing their argument for GR in the afternoon. On 9:40 PM, they sent in another scout to collect another document they would need to give GR an excuse to bring the German Lady into the show (to stage a show about how GR could have known about her and contacted her). 10 minutes later, the scout also tried to find another document which might possibly be used to further buttress GR's claim that his victim was a criminal. The document couldn't be found, however. It would seem that GR wished there would be more incriminating evidences than a single mysterious bad post: 62.219.120.80, Tel-Aviv.

This person could be using a proxy. Note that both were direct visits. This scout had been here before.

October 11 (Sunday)

There was no Secret Society scouting for GR's case today. There were already documents to both buttress GR's defense argument ("neighborhood watch"; how he could possibly know about his victim without being connected to the Secret Society) and to explain how he could have known about the German Lady and SDW.

October 12 (Monday)

It seems that, in order to enhance GR's case, the Secret Society wanted to add the additional argument that his victim also had the habit of suing his family members for imaginary causes, due to his mental illness. The scout came: 12:40 PM, 66.28.108.124, "Opposition to Demurrer", Cogent Communications, Los Angeles.

Or perhaps GR was simply tasked with an additional assignment of making a show in the court room to deceive the alleged suspect into the false impression that, in his other case, his cousin wasn't involved with PD. In any case, GR was probably planning on bringing this demurrer to his public defender tomorrow.

A Secret Society operation: saving GR
Lawrence Chin

11:52 PM, the alleged suspect posted, “The Secret Society’s current round....”

October 13 (Tuesday)

It seems that, two and a half hour before GR was due in court this morning, the Secret Society sent in another scout: 6:07 AM, 118.86.186.167, kakt.j-cnet.jp, Tokyo.

118.86.186.167 - - [13/Oct/2015:07:07:43 -0600] "GET /suppl_pld_107b/suppl_pld_drft_107B.pdf HTTP/1.1" 200 1299040 "https://www.google.com/" "Mozilla/5.0 (iPhone; CPU iPhone OS 7_1_2 like Mac OS X) AppleWebKit/537.51.2 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/7.0 Mobile/11D257 Safari/9537.53"

This could be a proxy. It may be that the gang wanted GR to carry to his public defender another document from which he could make out an argument about the alleged suspect’s stalking of the German Lady. This could further paint his victim in a monstrous light and discredit him. Of course, some twisting of what is said on the document would be needed, since the document recounted episodes from 6 years ago and nowhere on it did the alleged suspect talk about stalking anybody.

Then, an important visit came: 9:02 AM, 166.170.5.20, mycingular.net, California.

166.170.5.20 - - [13/Oct/2015:10:02:28 -0600] "GET /blogs/ HTTP/1.1" 200 25235 "-" "Mozilla/5.0 (iPhone; CPU iPhone OS 6_1_2 like Mac OS X) AppleWebKit/536.26 (KHTML, like Gecko) Version/6.0 Mobile/10B146 Safari/8536.25"

And so GR was in court by now. He must have presented his case to his public defender. “This guy talks about committing crimes on his blog, and that’s how I knew he was a criminal, by discovering his blog. And so I assaulted him trying to defend my neighborhood. And, guess what, he is truly bad to the bone. He also confesses his delusional obsession with all these women. I contacted them. The one girl you subpoenaed is just one of these poor women. There are many others. I found them all. They can verify the extraordinary criminal character of this guy. They can testify about how he stalked them and terrified them. One of them [the German Lady] had to get a restraining order against him. It’s justified to attack him, to take down a criminal in the neighborhood.” His public defender had already contacted and subpoenaed ANG and the detective involved in the alleged suspect’s vandalism case, but now the public defender could also bring in the German Lady, and perhaps SDW and Kiersten also. The task with which the Secret Society had entrusted GR was certainly to use this opportunity to make a big splash about the alleged suspect’s blog and to bring in the German Lady, SDW, and Kiersten as well, not only to demonize him before the jury, but also to deceive the alleged suspect and any outsiders, as if all these people had not, since a long time ago, known each other and teamed up to go after the alleged suspect, and had not sent GR to assault him. Perhaps it was inside the court room that GR decided to check the alleged suspect’s blog one more time. This would be the first time, however, that GR, or anybody in the Secret Society, had discovered the two new posts. When GR read “ANG’s most recent...”, however, he must have begun developing doubt about the Secret Society’s new job for him. The alleged suspect had clearly identified all the visits which he and ANG’s gang members had made to the alleged suspect’s website between 5

October and 9 October, although it was not yet stated that the “Glendale person” was just GR himself and, in the new post, the purpose of the Secret Society’s actions was misrepresented (not for the defense of GR, but to launch a different campaign to incriminate the alleged suspect). All this could become evidence proving that he and the Secret Society women had been gang-stalking the alleged suspect since a long time ago.

In any case, the trial would continue tomorrow, and the DA informed the alleged suspect that he might be needed to testify on Thursday.

Another possibly relevant visit tonight. 10:43 PM, 173.166.230.251, Visalia, CA. (North of Bakersfield.) Note the person from Visalia on 5 October: not the same person. The person may be related to the Bakersfield person seen 4 and 5 May.

It seems that the Secret Society was rehearsing its argument for GR.

14 October (Wednesday)

It was GR’s second day in court (for trial). Things weren’t going well. First, as noted, there was important discrepancy between the recording of the incident and GR’s picture of the alleged suspect as some sort of full-time criminal with extraordinary bad character. The recording clearly showed GR assaulting the alleged suspect out of nowhere and without provocation. Then, his public defender had to talk with the alleged suspect’s public defender in his vandalism case. The case was getting complicated. GR’s public defender must have advised him that his chance of winning was not so high, and so GR wanted to get out, instead of carrying out the Secret Society’s assignment for him to attack the alleged suspect one more time in the court room. By 11 AM, when the DA offered him a deal, he accepted it, and the case was over and done with. The Secret Society’s plan thus didn’t have a chance at all. Both SDW and the German Lady must be quite disappointed.

GR was very angry with the Secret Society women: although he didn't have to go to jail, he now had to attend class for a whole year in order to erase his conviction record. In the process he had probably also revealed the truth to his public defender. He might have been encouraged by his public defender to accept the plea bargain because what these women were telling him to do wasn't exactly legal. When community vigilantes discovered a criminal, they should have turned in all the evidences to the police rather than keeping them to themselves in order to form a secret cult, a “religion”, around them. GR was at least disillusioned with ANG's gang.
